11 days USA Coastal Cruise to Vancouver with Flights

About the holiday

What a stunning way to explore the United States and Canada, from California to British Columbia!

Fly from Australia to Los Angeles, where you'll board the 6-night cruise to Vancouver aboard Royal Caribbean's 'Brilliance of the Seas'.

Witness amazing coastal views as you sail first to Monterey, famous for its amazing aquarium, historic Fisherman's Wharf and Cannery Row. Continue to San Francisco, where you have a full day to explore the vibrant city with its popular Pier 39, colourful Chinatown, Little Italy and of course the Golden Gate Bridge and legendary Alcatraz Island. In Victoria, BC, there's time to visit the world-famous Butchart Gardens and see other historic sights, like the Fairmont Empress Hotel, Victorian-era Craigdarroch Castle and the Royal BC Museum.

Fortunately, when it's time to disembark in Vancouver it's not time to go home. Here you have 4 nights to explore the beautiful harbour city. The bustling metropolis is known for its cultural diversity, which you can witness in places like Chinatown's authentic eateries. Gastown is the city's oldest neighbourhood, where you can enjoy the Victorian architecture, bars with lots of personality, trendy boutiques and galleries. Stanley Park is an impressive 1000 acres and is the place to head for outdoor activities with its gardens, beaches and walking trails. Vancouver is also a great place to enjoy whale-watching tours from April to October. On a good day you could spot orcas and humpback whales, as well as birdlife like pelicans, puffins and bald eagles.

With return international flights, a Royal Caribbean cruise and a Canadian city stay, this is one neat North America package!
