17 Days Norway to Iceland Cruise & Flights

About the holiday

Experience Scandinavia at a stunning time of the year aboard a cruise of Norway, Scotland, Denmark and Iceland.

The two-week Norwegian Star cruise includes stops in Norway, Scotland, Faroe Islands and Iceland. While you're not captivated by the stunning scenery and natural highlights, there's plenty to keep you entertained on board with 10 restaurants, 11 bars and lounges. It's like a floating leisure centre with all the facilities. The décor is bright, all ages are catered for and you'll be welcomed on board by the cheery and multinational staff.

Cruise to dramatic landscapes, rich cultures and historic treasures. In Lerwick, visit the beloved Shetland ponies and tour the 17th century Scalloway Castle. Enjoy a scenic drive from Akureyri to Husavik to embark upon a whale watching tour where you may encounter Humpback, Minke and Orcas before returning shoreside to visit the unique Husavik Whale Museum. Then discover the awe-inspiring natural beauty surrounding Isafjordur on a guided tour that takes you into the culture and history of the region.

Itinerary:

Thursday - Aug 24, 2023

Depart Australia

Friday - Aug 24, 2023

Arrive Tromsø in Norway. Please catch a taxi to your hotel for the overnight stay in this glorious city.

Tromsø - where nature and culture go hand in hand. Tromsø is located 350 km north of the Arctic Circle and is the largest city in Northern Norway. In the early 1900s Tromsø was the starting point for expeditions to the Arctic. Hence its nickname: "Gateway to the Arctic". Today it is a modern city with many activities on offer, from an aquarium and several quality museums to the world's northernmost botanical garden. The city is also a popular place to observe the majestic phenomenon of the northern lights at certain times of the year.

Saturday - Aug 26, 2023

Check out of your hotel in the morning and the remainder of the day is free until it's time to make your way to the port to board Norwegian Star and embark on a cruise of Norway, Scotland, Faroe Islands, Iceland and Greenland.

MY TRAVEL EXPERIENCE BOOKING CONDITIONS

Please read the following information prior to making your reservation

Our full set of terms and conditions can be viewed and downloaded on our website, or supplied on request from our office. We highly recommend you read My Travel Experience booking conditions prior to making your holiday reservations. This is the contract under which both parties enter, therefore we request that you only make a booking if you agree with these conditions.

This is a summary in brief for our customers:

1. Upon making a reservation with My Travel Experience you will receive a booking form, which needs to be filled out and signed to confirm that you agree to the terms and conditions.
2. Your booking will then be confirmed to you in writing and you will be required to pay a deposit to hold your reservation.
3. At this time, you must take out travel insurance for your holiday to protect you against any unforeseen circumstances.
4. 90 days prior to departure you will be asked to make the balance payment for your trip (the exact due date for your travel supplier will be advised at the time of booking).
5. 10 days prior to departure you will be sent your travel documents via email.

My Travel Experience operates a Client Trust bank account. This means that we do not hold your money. We pay the ultimate travel providers (Suppliers) of your travel services the funds for your holiday. The Suppliers include airlines, tour operators, cruise lines, transport companies, hotels etc. We are required to pay the Suppliers deposits and final payments to secure your booking and in some instances these items are non-refundable.

If you wish to cancel you must notify us of your cancellation in writing. We will then write to the Suppliers to cancel your booking and request a refund (if applicable) for any elements of your holiday that are refundable. You will need to make an insurance claim for any travel arrangements that are non-refundable. If you have any issues during the refund or cancellation process, you have 30 days to contact our office in writing to lodge a complaint so an immediate resolution can be found for you.
