About the holiday

This is big ship cruising at its best, with onboard facilities to suit everyone.

Board the impressive new MSC World Europa for a round-trip voyage from Rome. The week that follows will take you through Sicily, Malta, Spain and France.

MSC World Europa marks a new class of ship for MSC Cruises. The line's first World-class ship began sailing from Doha in December 2022 and features seven pools, 33 restaurants, bars and lounges. The kids' club and MSC Yacht Club are the largest in the fleet. Additional new venues include the Panorama Lounge (Deck 8) and the 300-seat Luna Park Arena (Deck 5 & 6) for movies, kids entertainment and game shows.

MSC World Europa deck plan and design reflects one of the world's biggest and most environmentally friendly ships. The 6,774-passenger ship (at full occupancy) is more than 1,000 yards in length; spans 21 decks; has 430,000 square feet of public space, becoming the longest, tallest and biggest in the fleet - and one of the largest cruise ships at sea.

Between the vibrant cities, stunning natural sights and ancient wonders, this worry-free cruise ticks all the boxes for an exciting Mediterranean experience!

It is essential that clients are flexible in this regard.

About the MSC cruise

One of the first things passengers will notice about MSC World Europa is its striking design from the exterior. As well as the Y-shaped aft, the bow takes a futuristic bulbous shape, contributing to the ship's efficiency in the water. In addition to being LNG-powered, a source of electricity and heat onboard, the ship also taps into shore-to-ship power where possible and employs enhanced recycling and waste management systems.

MSC World Europa embraces a carnival-style ambiance with nearly round-the-clock entertainment. There's a buzzy new 113-yard World Promenade on Deck 8 and the impromptu performances that pop up here. Reminiscent of Royal Caribbean's Boardwalk, the half-open space is centered on the 11-deck dry slide - the largest of its kind at sea - called Venom Drop @ The Spiral. This coiling dry slide in the middle of the deck is spectacular.

Also on Deck 8, World Galleria is a beautiful space filled with drinking, dining and entertainment venues, with the LED-sky screen featured above similar in design to those on the Meraviglia class of ships. Deck 8 is bookended by the ship's two main show spaces, the all-new Panorama Lounge for music and dance shows, and the World Theatre, where five new shows will be on the program (Eko, Amelia, A Night on Broadway, Cadmo The Landwalke and Yellow Submarine).

If you're travelling with children, don't expect to see much of them onboard. The ship's Deck 19 kids club, Doremiland, is the largest in the fleet, while the 300-seat Luna Park Arena (Deck 6 & 7) also offers kids' activities and movie showings. There's more: Bumper cars; roller-skating; arcade games; drone masterclasses, waterslides and an addictive zombie-themed VR game.

MSC World Europa features 13 dining venues, including six specialty restaurants, two of which are new:

- Chef's Garden Kitchen (Deck 8), replacing L'Atelier Bistrot, features an open kitchen and a glass-encased floor-to-ceiling growing space where micro herbs and other greens are grown onboard.
- La Pescaderia (Deck 8) has a focus on Greek and other Mediterranean dishes with an outdoor seating area for alfresco dining on the World Promenade.
- The inclusive Luna Park Pizza & Burger (Deck 6) serves outstanding slices of pizza and other fast food options opposite the new Luna Park Arena.
- Returning regulars include American-style steakhouse Butcher's Cut, Asian-inspired Kaito Teppanyaki Grill and Sushi Bar, Latin American street food-inspired Hola! Tacos & Cantina and Jean-Philippe Chocolate & Cafe.
- Masters of the Sea Pub is split across two decks and three craft brews on board in special copper vats installed as a showpiece in the bar.

Another new concept is Elixir -- Mixology Bar with elaborate signature cocktails, a South Asian-style tea room filled with perfumes from the East, an authentic Emporium coffee bar with selections from around the world, a widely stocked Gin Project inspired by a real distillery, a zesty juice bar made from fresh ingredients and a gelateria. There's also a new cafe, Coffee Emporium, serving bean-to-cup coffee and indulgent pastries and cakes.

Among the new venues on this super-size ship is the Raj Polo Tea House (Deck 8), which reminds us of a lounge you might find at the Raffles Singapore or a luxurious Four Seasons hotel. There's no sign of bling or sparkles here; simply muted colours, plush furnishings and a relaxed vibe where soothing cups of chai and afternoon tea are served. Follow the passage to the left of the venue to see a gallery of teas, tea traditions, a map showing where the teas are produced and artifacts relating to this much-loved drink.
