About the holiday

The astounding history, wonders of the natural and man-made variety and world-class cuisine of Japan awaits on this fantastic getaway.

Japan has an extensive and very efficient rail network and this independent trip features the great train experience and most affordable way to get around. Japanese trains are clean, comfortable and as you'd expect, incredibly punctual. You can basically travel by train to almost everywhere that you'd want to visit and it's really easy. Language is seldom a problem and stations have signs and departure boards in English as well as Japanese. The Japan Rail Pass offers unlimited travel on the JR Railway, selected buses and selected ferries for overseas visitors.

To start with, Tokyo will be your base for the 5 nights. From here you can use the rail pass to take exhilarating bullet train rides, explore vibrant cities, see UNESCO World Heritage-listed sites and enjoy scenic excursions.

Then travel by economy rail from Tokyo to Osaka, where the next 5 nights will be at a central Osaka hotel. Exciting days of exploration await, as you discover ancient temples, delicious dining and unique sights on an unforgettable holiday in Japan!
