| 3 | Thursday, April 25, 2024 | New York (Manhattan), USA | Embark | 6:00 PM |

New York's port on the Hudson River in Manhattan is four blocks from Central Park. New York is situated on the Atlantic coast of NE United States. With its world-class museums, big statues, even bigger buildings - certainly the Manhattan skyline with its many skyscrapers is universally recognizable - and being the most linguistically diverse city in the world, the Big Apple's hyperactive rush keeps drawing more and more people to it.

| 5 | Saturday, April 27, 2024 | Halifax, Canada | 8:00 AM | 5:00 PM |

Halifax, the capital of Nova Scotia, the Gateway to Atlantic Canada, is a lively and colourful combination of urban and rural living at its best. It is situated on the world's second largest harbour, and the beautifully restored waterfront buildings recall the city's centuries-old maritime heritage, which is also cleverly explained at the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic. Visit the Canadian Museum of Immigration at Pier 21, and the Halifax Citadel that explores the unique local heritage.

Reykjavik, the capital and largest city of Iceland, is the gateway to Iceland's stunning natural wonders, which range from ice fields to boiling thermal pools. The landscape on the island seems to be in a continual process of transformation much like its society, which blends Nordic tradition with sophisticated technology. On the waterfront see the open-air history of shipping disasters.

| 13 | Sunday, May 5, 2024 | Belfast, Great Britain | 12:00 PM | 8:00 PM |

Belfast is the capital and largest city of Northern Ireland, and is currently experiencing a successful tourist boom. One of the most visited cities in the UK, Belfast has plenty of attractions and is a good base from which to visit virtually anywhere else in the North. In the city centre concentrate on the glories resulting from the Industrial Revolution – grandiose architecture and magnificent Victorian pubs – and the rejuvenated area from Ann Street to Donegall Street now known as the Cathedral quarter.

| 14 | Monday, May 6, 2024 | Cork, Ireland | 12:00 PM | 8:00 PM |
|----|------------------------|---------------|----------|---------|

Cork is the principal city and administrative centre of County Cork, situated in the SW of Ireland. County Cork has earned the nickname of 'the Rebel County', while Corkonians often refer to the city as the 'real capital of Ireland' and themselves as the 'Rebels'. It began on an island in the swampy estuary of the River Lee, and gradually climbed up the steep banks on either side.

Portland Harbour, dating back for thousands of years, is located beside the Isle of Portland off Dorset on the south coast of England. It is home to one of the largest man-made harbours in the world. Today the harbour is a popular location for wind surfing, diving and sailing, and it hosted most sailing events in the 2012 Olympic Games.

Le Havre is a city in the NW of France, situated on the right bank of the mouth of the Seine River and 170 km from Paris. Best known for being the ferry terminal for the English Channel crossings, it should not be quickly dismissed. This city was devastated during WWII, but was rebuilt in modernist style and designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2005.

Southampton, UK, is a city and major port situated on the south coast of England, and is widely recognised as the capital of the country's cruise industry. Each year more and more cruise liners take advantage of its superb cruise terminals. It is, of course, a gateway to Europe's largest city, the enormous cosmopolitan city of London, with all the cultural and gastronomic attractions you'd expect from a world capital.

DAY 17, Arrive London

Make your way from the Southampton cruise terminal to the London hotel. Today is free for you to start exploring the city at your leisure.

DAY 18, London

The city is all about historic sights, iconic museums and galleries, riding a double decker bus and wandering through famous squares and shopping streets. Enjoy discovering the city and its many highlights at your own pace.

DAY 19, Depart London, Fly to Australia

This morning, it's time to check out of the hotel. You'll be transferred to the airport in time for your overnight flight home (arriving day 20 or 21, depending on flight schedules). We hope you've enjoyed an amazing voyage!

Please note: The day-by-day descriptions are intended as an indicative guide only. Travel by nature is unpredictable. Weather patterns, ocean conditions, public holidays, travel restrictions and many other factors may necessitate itinerary changes that are ultimately for the client's benefit.
